1. An arms factory is located at Kragujevac (Serbia). On 3 August 1947, 172 guns were dispatched in closed trucks from this factory, of which 92 (47 mm German PAK a tk guns) were for the 14 Motorized Division at Buzarevac and 80 (75 mm Carlukon mortars) for the 27 "Planinari" Division at Tuzla. The 27 Div is reported to be under the command of General Ivan Simat, born at Bjelovac on 20 May 1895.
2. Work in this factory is controlled by senior Russian officers and Russian civilian technicians.
3. Workers work in two shifts:
 - (a) 0800-1200 and 1400-1900 hours
 - (b) 2000-0400 hours
4. Work has recently begun on the construction of 180 guns of 120 mm caliber, with a barrel 320-330 mm long, of Russian design. The mounds are prepared during two or three shifts under the exclusive control of Russian technicians.
